Did the report clearly explain what was being done and why it is valuable?	5	5	Yes - the hypothesis in this report was unique explored the question around the connection between transportation and housing prices. A genuinely interesting analysis. Exceptionally well done report.
Did the report demonstrate understanding of the methods used and why?	5	5	Yes
Did the report articulate what has been done previously with this work and was there ample reference to past work?	4	4	Yes
Is this coherently written and does this flow logically?	5	5	Yes - this report was extremely well done, very professional, and well-articulated.
Were the figures properly presented (axes, labels, caption, legend, legible)?	5	5	Yes - excellent use of figures to demonstrate each step in of the proces. The flowchart was particularly helpful in determining how precisely your methodology worked and how you preprocessed the data (for which you had a significant effort. Figures 11-13 could have been condensed into a single figure, likely, or at least been made a bit more compact.
